

Mythology or Theology: Which?

“But who do YOU say that I am?”

Old Testament (BC)	New Testament (AD)	Consequences
In the beginning The Trinity (Mythology) ONE God in THREE persons God the Father God the Son God the Holy Ghost	The Trinity The second person of the Trinity, God the Son, becomes Jesus the Son of man via an incarnation and birth through the virgin Mary	The Trinity would exist into all eternity. There can be no true Family of God, and no true additional sons of God. God is our Father in name only through creation but not through procreation
In the beginning The Twinity (Mythology) ONE God in TWO persons God the Creator God the Spokesman	The God Family God the Spokesman becomes the Son of God and the Son of man via an incarnation and birth through the virgin Mary	The God Family is a family in name only and Jesus is the Son of God in name only. The Twinity denies that Jesus is truly the Son of God by claiming that He existed before He was born. True son- ship can not come from without
In the beginning God (Theology) ONE God in ONE person God the Creator and His Word	The God Family God reproduced Himself when His Word (seed/sperm) became the Son of God and the Son of man via procreation/birth through the virgin Mary	The God Family The ONE God of the O.T. became truly the Family of God in the N.T. when Jesus was literally born of God. True son-ship is from within. The ONE God becoming TWO and then MANY
