"I could never believe in a Jesus whom I could understand!" – Daniel Webster

"By the time a man realizes that maybe his father was right, he usually has a son who thinks he's wrong." – Charles Wadsworth

"Difficult to conquer is oneself; but when that is conquered, everything is conquered."

"The richness of life lies in the memories we have forgotten."

"Nothing changes a human being faster than a deeper understanding of who God is." – R.C. Sproul

"Honesty is the first chapter in the book of wisdom." – Thomas Jefferson

"The morning breeze has secrets to tell you. Do not go back to sleep." – Wayne Dyer

"Reserve judgment on whatever is uncertain and assent only to clear precepts." – John Toland

"Adam was not alone in the Garden of Eden, however, and does not deserve all the credit; much is due to Eve, the first woman, and Satan, the first consultant." – Mark Twain

"The greatest enemy to faith is a lack of understanding God's Word." – Russ Pflar

"A happy marriage is a union of two good forgivers."

"You don't find happiness looking for it. You stumble over it on the road of duty."

Coming together is a beginning

Keeping together is progress

Working together assures success.

"The only faith the Christian is called upon to fight is the fight of faith." – Timothy/God

"Christianity, if false, is of no importance, and if true, of infinite importance. The only thing it cannot be is moderately important." – C.S. Lewis

"A life of unremitting caution, without the carefree – or even, occasionally, the careless – may turn out to be half a life."
– Anna Quindlen

"What experience and history teach us is this – that people and governments never have learned anything from history, or acted on principles deduced from it." – G.W.F. Hegel

"The media can wreak great harm on the family when it offers an inadequate or even distorted vision of life, of the family itself and of religion and morality." – Pope John Paul II

"Attack the evil that is within yourself; do not attack the evil that is in others." – Confucianism

"Kind words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless." – Mother Theresa

"He who is afraid of doing too much, always does too little."

"All are not saints that go to church."

"We must not confuse dissent with disloyalty." – Edward R. Murrow

"A man has learned much who has learned how to die."

"There is no scarcity of opportunity to make a living at what you love; there's only scarcity of resolve to make it happen."
– Wayne Dyer

"To remain silent when they should protest makes cowards of men." – Thomas Jefferson

"Pain is temporary - Pride is forever."

"No one will be in the Kingdom of God against his own will." – Robert Schmid

"Just because the microphone in front of you amplifies your voice around the world, is no reason to think we have any more wisdom than we had when our voices could reach only from one end of the bar to the other." – Edward R. Murrow

"Thank goodness we don't get all the government we pay for." – Will Rogers

"Happiness is a voyage, not a destination. There is no better time to be happy than... now! Live and enjoy the moment."

"Knowledge is of no value except as it is used. Not the hearers, but the doers of the law shall be justified. The command to study is for the purpose of putting the instruction into action that we may 'show' ourselves approved unto God... Bible study is of value only in proportion as the knowledge revealed is incorporated into your character in actually living it." – Herbert W. Armstrong

"Though one should conquer a million men on the battlefield, yet he, indeed, is the noblest victor who has conquered himself." – Buddhism

"The storm is master. Man, as a ball, is tossed twixt winds and billows." – Friedrich Schiller
